We desire it understood that everybody is welcome to attend these classes. The fact is that these classes are being held for the very purpose of helping anybody who is teachable to understand the Bible. The table is set for those who desire to eat. It costs you nothing but your time. We never have any collection. Seats are always free. I wish to remind you that because the International Bible Students never take up collection and always give their services without money and without price they are hated by the most of the preachers. I ask you to judge for yourself as to who is showing more of the Lord's spirit? The one who will give you the Truth without money and without price or the one who says in so many words that unless the dollars are forthcoming I will not preach for you.

We have a nice, clean, warm and roomy place for meeting.
